The fundamental Christian vocation is union with God, and that is not a goal somehow reserved for priests and religious as if married people are meant to. My sister got married two weeks ago. And boy was it a whirlwind. Tons of little things went wrong leading up to the big day. Someone got sick. Someone else fell.

Our cultural landscape suggests that marriage is the "next step" for any couple who enjoys a So, what does marriage actually mean for new marrieds today?.

Marriage is great. However, the whole concept has seemingly been overrated, leading to a widely held notion that every grown up has to get married. An excerpt from Christopher Ash's book 'Marriage for God' (Crossway,). Marriage is not a hour repair shop. Your marital partner is not supposed to meet your every need. Some of those needs you may have to.
