

My name is M. I journeyed to this earth, with my companion, for our next adventure. After many eons observing beings on earth my companion splits with me to have a short field trip but never returns. Long have I awaited her return but she seemed out of reach so I decided to find out why. Later, I was told that I must become human if I wished to see her again. For reasons unknown, a peculiar energy about this planet seemed strange. After becoming human I lost the most important thing, my mission for coming. After an intervention, my memories returned. A short fantasy literature which tells the story of a rare human told in his own voice. It is a tale of the past life regression till present. A tale of one man's search for his companion who reincarnates many times on this planet earth, and has forgotten to return.
