

Two of Jackson Gregory's novels are in this Kindle book: The Everlasting Whisper: A Tale of the California Wilderness (1922) & Judith of Blue Lake Ranch (1919). The Everlasting Whisper: A Tale of the California Wilderness (1922) It was Springtime in the California Sierra when a man on a cliff top watched as two figures were torn apart. One drew suddenly back. The other fell through the gorges, plunging straight down and striking against a ragged rock. The man who had seen all this from his own slope spoke aloud for the first time: Swen Brodie. There's not another man in the mountains brute enough for that. Judith of Blue Lake Ranch (1919) Blue Lake Ranch Foreman Bud Lee was studying a telegram arrived. It seemed the Blue Lake was short of cash. Worse, the men had to answer to a woman they savagely referred to as the girl! Every two weeks she demanded reports, eternally butting in and making suggestions. Bud Lee resolved to see just what he could do about that little woman and her big ideas. About The Author American writer Jackson Gregory (1882–1943) was a teacher and journalist who worked in Illinois, Texas, and New York.
