

Most successful entrepreneurs are clinically unemployable - incapable of working for others, and determined to succeed on their own. This is just one of the traits and attributes for success drawn out by this guide to winning in the field of commerce. Based on case studies of numerous well-known successful business personalities, this book provides an insightful guide to the way that entrepreneurial success is won. Case studies include: Alan Sugar (Amstrad), Lord Weinstock (GEC), John Ashcroft (Coloroll), Marco Pierre-White (Harveys), Bruce Oldfield (Designer), Sir John Harvey-Jones, Sophie Mirman (Sock Shop) and many others.
